

QA has partnered with the Association of Apprentices (AoA) a membership organisation that connects apprentices across the UK. In working with AoA, we will provide access to social and professional networks, learning, guidance, and support to enhance the apprenticeship journey.

All learners are eligible for free AoA membership

What does this mean?

- ✓ Connect with a community of other apprentices.
- ✓ Build a professional network.
- ✓ Get information, advice, and tips to help during the apprenticeship.
- ✓ Advice to help get assessment ready and successfully complete the apprenticeship.
- ✓ Great content that can be used as part of the off-the-job training
- ✓ Insight from experts and leaders across different sectors and specialisms
- ✓ Support with life skills, mental health and well-being and soft skills development
- ✓ Free events both on-line and in person

Learn

Tools and resources to enhance learners understanding and get the most out of the apprenticeship.

From self-assessments to learning about a range of topics from excel to coping with challenges and change.

Connect

The only social network site dedicated to apprentices.

Enables learners to connect with others across the UK by region, industry, interests, ask for advice from peers, discuss strategies and more.

On Demand

Enabling learners to access videos of past events, wherever they are.

Examples include:
‘Taking Control Of Your EPA’
‘Your Apprenticeship, Your Mental Health’
